Call for Expression of Interest in Website Design & Upgrade

Background

Amani Institute Uganda (AIU) is a think-tank established in northern Uganda to enhance research capabilities and localize impact of research within the region, as well as promote rights, peace, justice and empowerment through evidence-based advocacy. Amani is a non-profit, non-governmental organization incorporated in 2013 as a company limited by guarantees.

Tasks

Amani seeks the services of an experienced website designer to evaluate, redesign and upgrade its website to accommodate its ever-growing content, research materials, audio-visual content and dynamic requirements.

The assignment would include review and evaluation of the current website design, its content, potential and design an upgrade strategy and new layout to achieve the desired goal as one of the most use friendly, attractive, navigable, and multi-media website.

Application:

Interested candidates should submit their expression of interest with a cover letter, a short CV (max 3pages), an inception report consisting of an assessment of the current website www.amaniuganda.org and a proposal for its redesign and upgrade, proposed timeline and costs.

Application can be emailed to amaniuganda@gmail.com or hand delivered to Plot 13 R Labour Line Muroni Rd, Pece Division, Gulu Municipality.
